What is the Michigan Ross Maymester?
The Maymester gives undergraduate students the opportunity to earn core and elective business credits from the University of Michigan Ross School of Business in just four weeks (three weeks fewer than the regular Spring semester). Students can enroll in 3-credit courses during the month of May. This means that students can complete Maymester courses and still fully participate in internships that begin on or after June 1.

Who is eligible to register?
These courses are not just for Ross students! Registration is open to rising junior and senior undergraduate students across the University of Michigan. Note that rising sophomores are not eligible to register, and that some courses do require prerequisites.

Which courses can I take in 2022?
- Business Economics // BE 300
  (3.0 credit BBA core exclusively for BBA rising juniors and seniors)
- Sales Management // MKT 310
  (3.0 credits) BBA elective for rising juniors and seniors; also meets Cappo Sales Track requirement
- Consumer Behavior // MKT 313
  (3.0 credit BBA elective for rising juniors and seniors; meets Cappo Sales Track requirement)

How often will we meet?
Maymester courses will be held in person and begin May 3 and end May 25, with exams on May 27, 2022. There will be seven class sessions per week, spread between 9:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., and there may be some evening exams.

What if I want to take other Spring Term courses offered on campus?
You are welcome to pair Maymester courses with other U-M courses or experiences that fit your schedule. Keep in mind that the credit load for Spring Term is six credits, and that other Spring Term courses are in session until mid-June.

When do I register for these courses?
Registration will take place during U-M’s Spring/Summer class registration. Ross BBA students will have registration appointments scheduled between March 31 and April 13, 2022. Note that this is the same registration window as for Fall 2022 classes.

Am I eligible for financial aid?
Yes, students who enroll in the Maymester are eligible for financial aid. Please reach out to the Office of Financial Aid to apply.

I still have some questions.
Who should I ask?
Discuss your registration plans and questions with your advisor.
